

Publications Policy

PURPOSE

AANM undertakes publication projects, including the publication in the AANM newsletter and website, in order to:

1. create a forum for discussion of ideas
2. contribute to scholarship on issues pertaining to artists with disabilities
3. promote the work of artists with disabilities
4. encourage discourse in the AANM community
5. provide opportunities and remuneration for artists and writers.

FORMAT

AANM publications and co-publications can exist in print or on-line, and may take the form of books, broadsheets, brochures, posters, postcards or other ephemera.

PROCEDURE

The AANM newsletter is posted on-line quarterly, and disseminated to the membership.

Other AANM publications are created on an ad hoc basis.

AANM will work to monitor and upgrade the organizations website to maintain a fully accessible as website accessibility standards evolve.
